

CMIA HOSTED MEETING ON CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR)

=====

CSR has been a subject which each industry deals in its own way. There are many large and small scale companies involved in numerous activities taking care of social needs. Though Industry is keen in expanding the scope of it further, the same has not been happening leaving great potential to expand the horizon of this subject across the country.

Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Govt. of India has issued guidelines to Industries regarding implementing activities connected with Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). Most of the leading companies and Corporates are demonstrating Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in their own way.

As reported Union Government the Corporate Entities to identify and discharge their social responsibilities following which the Maharashtra Centre for Entrepreneurship Development (MCED) has set up a separate department to deal with the CSR recently.

Maharashtra Centre for Entrepreneurship Development (MCED) is a nodal agency of Govt. of Maharashtra to promote Entrepreneurship and self-employment in the state. In response to the guidelines issued by Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Govt. of India, MCED has created a separate cell at Aurangabad to cater to the needs of Corporate Sector for executing their Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). The main aim of this newly formed wing of MCED is to assist and co-ordinate the activities connected with Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) of the Corporate Sector in a more professional way.

Chamber of Marahtwada Industries and Agriculture (CMIA) has taken an initiative to create a common platform in association with MCED for all Corporates to share their views, ideas and projects, which are executed by you as part of your Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). A special meeting was organized on 13th March, 2010 at CMIA office. CMIA had invited Industry representatives who take care of the CSR activities for their respective companies for participation in the meeting as well as presenting their programmes for the knowledge of other Industry Representatives.
