

INAUGURATION CEREMONY AT ENDRESS+HAUSER GROUP

On 5th February, 2010 Endress+Hauser, Waluj group has inaugurated the following facilities at the hands of Mr. Klaus Endress, their Chief Executive Officer;

1) New state of the art production facility for Level and Pressure Instruments at Endress+Hauser (I) Automation Instrumentation Pvt.Ltd

2) Expansion of production facility at Endress+Hauser Flowtec (I) Pvt.Ltd. to 12800 square meters with addition of new product range, manufacturing and calibration facility.

At the inauguration function Mr. Klaus Endress said "The goal of the company is not profits, but good economic activities." Endress further said efficient service to customers and welfare of employees is their priority. The company along with shouldering social responsibilities is committed to research and development too. Seven percent of the sales go into research and development. The group cooperates closely with colleges and research institutions and supports extensive training and professional improvement programmes. The group has recently tied up with Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University (BAMU) and Marathwada Institute of Technology (MIT) for research and students training programmes. The company was started in 1953 by his father George Endress and now it has a network of 86 companies in 40 countries. The company plays a significant role in providing automation technology and logistic solutions in various industries, including chemicals, petrochemicals, food and beverage, water/waste water, life science, oil and gas, power and energy, renewable energies and other establishments.

On this occasion Mr. Steve Matthew said that the initiative taken by the Endress+Hauser is a step towards the co-operation between the two countries. The Indian market has a great potential whereas Aurangabad and Pune are emerging as the industrial hubs now. The Swiss Govt. has adopted a free trade policy for the protection of the industries.

Swiss Counsellor Steve Matthew, Managing Director, Mathius Altendof, Dr. Gerhard Jost, Fernando Feujaldin, MD (India) Sajeevnath, Kulathu Kumar and Shriramnarayan were present on this occasion. The employees of Endress Hauser were felicitated by CEO Klaus Endress.